

Life on Board

First Fleet

Use evidence (i.e. state your source) to answer the following question:

What was life like on board the First Fleet ships for convicts?

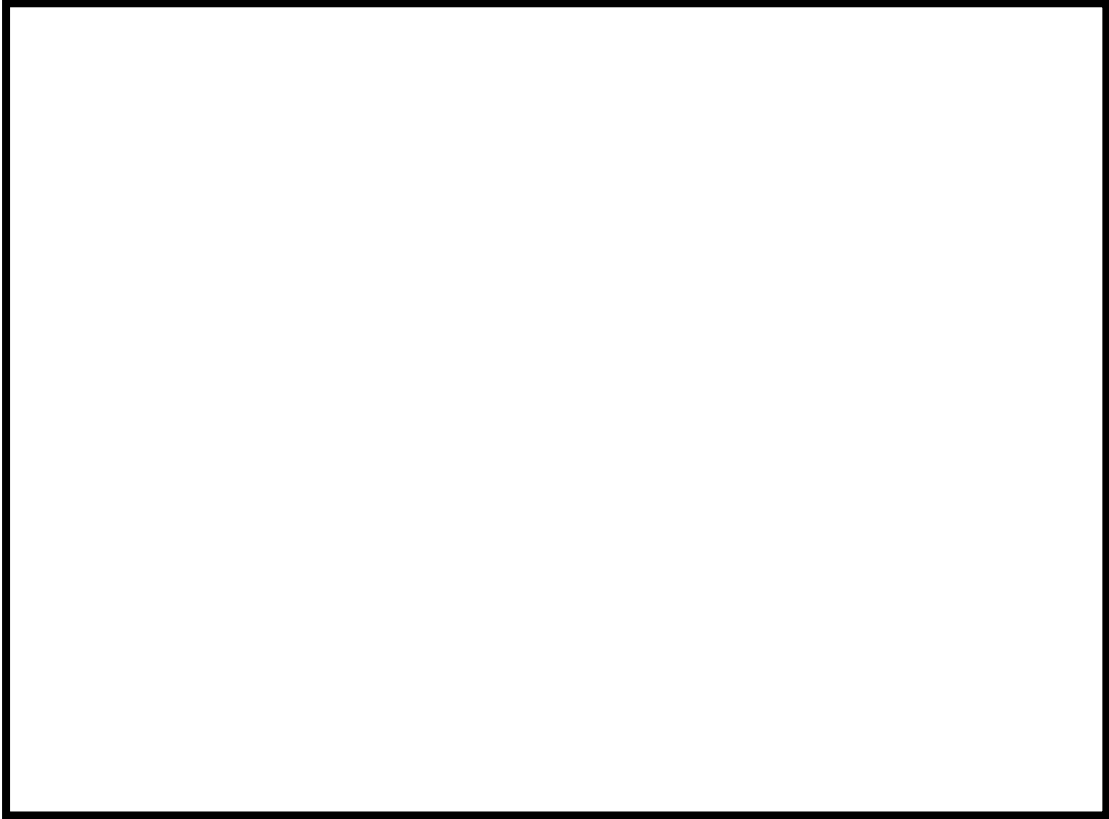

Begin by taking notes in the boxes below, then use this information to formulate a justified argument.

Consider:

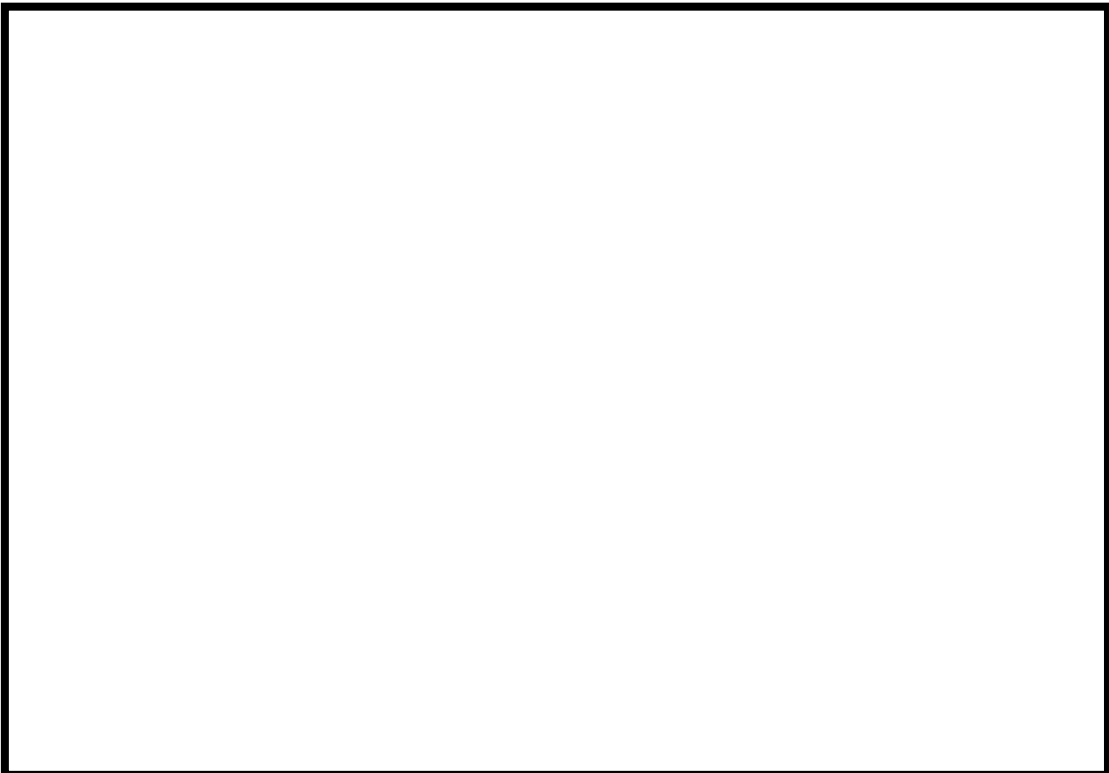

- accommodation
- sleeping arrangements
- exercise arrangements
- food
- the types of diseases and illnesses experienced
- the prevalence of disease and illness
- health care provided
- punishments
- deaths and disposal of the dead
- significant events
- length of the voyage
- reasons for the discrepancies between numbers departing from England and arriving in Sydney
