

The Dictionary of Sydney needs your help

Pic: Promissory note for one pound issued by Garnam Blaxcell, 29 January 1814, Courtesy: Sir William Dixon numismatic collection, State Library of NSW (a6416001 / SAFE/DN/P 262)
<http://dictionaryofsydney.org/image/146170>

The Dictionary of Sydney has been publishing freely accessible, reliable & authoritative information about Sydney's history since November 2009.

Every day we provide facts, information, images, multimedia, insights and stories about Sydney to thousands of students, teachers, history lovers and researchers all over the world.

As of December 2016, the Dictionary of Sydney has no ongoing operational funding.

The Dictionary's content is being moved onto a new sustainable platform at the State Library of New South Wales where it will be supported and preserved for posterity, but to keep adding to the Dictionary and telling more of Sydney's stories, the Dictionary of Sydney needs YOUR help.

Pic: Training for the new decimal currency - a display of giant coins at the Channel 10 studio in Sydney 1965. By W Brindle. Courtesy: National Archives of Australia (A1200, L52590)
<http://dictionaryofsydney.org/image/94409>

How to donate

To make a donation online, you can go directly to our donation page at Give Now.

If you'd rather send a cheque, please make it payable to the Dictionary of Sydney and send it to the address below. Include your contact details and we will post your receipt to you.

Dictionary of Sydney
Att: The Executive Officer
PO Box 23 Glebe NSW 2037

Make a donation to the Dictionary of Sydney before June 30 to claim a tax deduction this year.

DONATE TODAY

Thank you for your support!

Pic: The City of Sydney (a birdseye view), 1888 by MS Hill Courtesy: City of Sydney Archives / Historical Atlas of Sydney <http://dictionaryofsydney.org/image/97526>

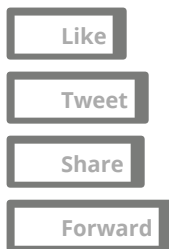

The Dictionary of Sydney is grateful for the support of the City of Sydney, our major government partner from 2006 - 2016.

Contact Us
Dictionary of Sydney
PO Box 23, Glebe NSW 2037
info@dictionaryofsydney.org
www.dictionaryofsydney.org

You are receiving this email as a subscriber to
The Dictionary of Sydney

Preferences | Unsubscribe